Startling Mortality.

Statistics show startling mortality, from appendicitis and peritonitis. To prevent and cure these awful diseases, there is just one reliable remedy, Dr. King's New Life Pills. M. Flannery, of 14 Custom House Place, Chicago, says: "They have no equal for Constipation and biliousness." 25c at T. E. Paul's druggist.

LOCAL NEWS.

See Neat, Hancock & Staples line of trunks, suit cases, etc.

Now is the time to make your timothy meadow. If you have no meadow fix a small piece of land, just like you were making it for onions, drill in your fertilizer and sow the seed and next June you will be surprised at the hay you will have.

I have a good double barrel breech loading shot gun no. 12, for sale or trade cheap.

M. CRAVENS.

From every section of this county reports of an extra tobacco crop come and if the price does not shrink this county will have more money in circulation within a few months than for many years in the past.

We have just received one of the best assorted lines of Furniture ever brought to Columbia, consisting of bed room suits, Rockers, odd pieces of all kinds, in fact every thing in the furniture line.

2t NEAT, HANCOCK & STAPLES.

Perhaps more tobacco was grown in Adair county this season than for many years in the past. It is nearly all cut and the quality is first class. There is also a very large crop in Taylor county.

A large crowd is expected here next Monday, the opening of circuit court. Stock trading will be lively, and a number of buyers from a distance will be here. Columbia is a fine market, many mules and horses changing hands every court day.

In the entire history of this State, back beyond the introduction of Boone and Crockett, there was never better watermelons grown. They were large and sweet and delicious to eat, but they are nearly all gone. Alas! farewell to the millions.

For Sale.

One 16-horse power gasoline engine with grist mill and corn crusher, in good condition.

S. K. Humphress & Co.,
Knifley, Ky. tf.

Miss Cora Simpson, who graduated at Valparaiso, Ind., a few weeks ago is in charge of the primary department in the Lindsay-Wilson. She is showing a marked adaptability as a teacher, and those who patronize her can not have room for regrets.

Miss Duncan, whose thorough qualifications as an elocutionist were demonstrated in the contests last session of the Lindsay-Wilson, has started work this time with an unusually large class. She is an elocutionist, as well as one of the best teachers in the entire country.

The South Cumberland Association held its annual Association at White Oak last week. It was in session only two days but the meeting was profitable and pleasant throughout. The representation from the various churches indicated peace and brotherly love prevailing with all the churches. The reports showed that the Baptist cause was not on the wane. All the delegates and the many visitors were well entertained for the unbounded hospitality of the people of that community have no superiors.

We learn that a difficulty occurred near Sulphur Well, Metcalfe county, last Saturday afternoon, resulting in the killing of Rufus Dowell, who was shot to death by a man named Seck. It was impossible to gather the particulars, but it is said Dowell was shot several times.

Never in the history of Columbia was trading in reality more lively. There have been a number of lots changed hands in the last week and there are at this time several big trades ready to be pulled off, and may be closed in the next few days.

Auction Sale—Sept. 16, 3 p. m.

ALLEN PILE

Next week the grand jury will be in session and if proper witnesses can be brought before it, it is said that whiskey is being sold at several different points in the county and from the number of jugs that come to Columbia there is no doubt but parties are "bootlegging" here.

The Columbia Band, recently organized and under the instruction of Mr. Earl McGarvey has been making rapid strides in the art of music making. We authorized to state that the band will appear on the public square one evening this week and give a few of its choice pieces.

The Monticello Fair was held last week and the attendance was heavy from start to finish. As we are informed it was a success in every particular and the people witnessed some of the swiftest running ever seen in that section by thoroughbreds.

Mr. N. M. Tutt, our real estate man, has recently got control of a mouse-colored pony whose good graces point to safety and pleasant going. The pony is a good one, beyond doubt, but he seems to be heavily loaded some times when trying to do the saddle act under the aforesaid mentioned gentleman.

Neat, Hancock & Staples have an attractive "ad" in this issue which you will do well to read. This firm is in touch with the needs of this part of the State and are moving in progressive lines. Watch their advertisements in the News if you want to keep in touch with their bargains.

It all depends upon how you live and how you treat these around you. Take the family, for instance, if governed right, and it is the corner-stone of the State. The better the home life of the people the better the State. The family of simple living and high ideals is something to be desired; it is a rallying center for its neighborhood; its influence extends beyond the confines of its home, and where there are many of them the corrective is found for tendencies subversive of good order and good citizenship. There is no place like home if it is a home, no name half so dear. It may not be fashionably furnished, but if all is peace, it is a heaven to the woman who presides over it.

Next week we will publish the speech delivered by Hon. Jas. F. Montgomery, of this place, in the Constitutional Convention, opposing the secret ballot system. It should be read by the supporters of the News, and they should vote at the November election in accordance to the sentiment expressed.

Sandusky Bros., W. R. Myers and W. H. Gill will install a planing mill and within a short time will be in position to furnish any kind of dressed lumber. All parties connected with this plant are experienced men in the business except Mr. Gill, but he is a man full of energy and will prove a valuable man from the beginning.

There is no such thing as man's rights and woman's rights separate and distinct from each other. Woman's rights are simply human rights. The sexes belong to each other; what benefits one helps the other; what elevates either uplifts both. Man is the outdoor and woman the indoor partner in the firm of humanity.

Columbia is the growing city of the Green river section of Kentucky. About fifty dwellings have been erected here within the last year, and we are informed that there are as many as three gentlemen, living in an adjoining county, who own good farms and who are ready to come to Columbia as soon as they can perfect arrangements.

Mr. T. L. Upton has recently purchased a half interest in a saw mill near Monticello and has been actively engaged in that work for two or three weeks. Mr. Upton was in Columbia last week any removed his family to Monticello. He is a mill man of many years experience and a gentleman worthy the confidence of all.

It is reported here that Burr Huddleston, who is suspected of being implicated in the murder of James Skinner, which occurred in Cumberland county, several months ago, has returned to Burkesville to stand any charge that may be brought against him. Since young Huddleston left Burkesville he has been in the South.

The Music Department of the M. & F. High School, under the direction of Mr. C. Fredric Ohlenmacher, is indeed in a flourishing condition. The people of this section are never satisfied with any thing but the very best. They recognize in Mr. Ohlenmacher a musician of wonderful talent. New students are being rapidly enrolled.

The Lindsay-Wilson has made an effort to secure the best music teachers in the entire country and is proud of its accomplishments in the past, but its present instructors promise to be the wisest selection of all. Miss Penland in charge of voice and piano is unequalled in all the country, while Mrs. Rounds is known to be one of the ablest and most efficient teachers of stringed instruments and organ of any teacher in the land. No institution surpasses the Lindsay-Wilson in music and few if any its equal.

The industrial edition of the Marion Falcon, of September the 1st, of 38 pages, is one of the neatest and most attractive editions of this kind we have seen for many months and reflects much credit on its enterprising editor, R. D. Thornbury. The business interests and many of the active, business and professional men who have aided in making Lebanon one of Kentucky's best and most progressive towns, are well and forcefully set out, and if the progress in men and interests of that thrifty city fail to appreciate such a valuable advertisement and true picture of its inviting conditions then, indeed, there is no gratitude.

Mr. J. P. Dohoney, whose home is near Columbia, returned Saturday night from Iowa. Mr. Dohoney has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. E. C. Murrell, and Miss Bessie Dohoney, Fairfield; and Mrs. C. M. Murrell, Sabula. In company with Mr. E. C. Murrell he made a trip into the Dakotas and the great wheat regions of Canada. He tells us that home seekers are flocking across the lines from the States and land has advanced more than tenfold in the last few years. It was a prospective tour, but he has no intentions of becoming a British subject.

Part of the heirs of Miss Rosaline Hays, late of Jamestown, Ky., and daughter of Joseph E. Hays, have by their attorneys, Montgomery & Montgomery, filed a suit in the Adair circuit court for a construction of a deed for 340 acres of land in this county made by J. E. Hays to his daughter a number of years ago. This deed, owing to the many provisions, conditions and limitations presents considerable difficulty of construction. Miss Hays, before her death, made a will giving considerable part of her estate, including one third of this tract of land to the Methodist church for charitable purposes. The question to be settled by the suit is, whether or not under the deed Miss Hays owned the lands absolutely or only a limited estate.
